

Waste items that pose a fire risk

– how to dispose of them safely

Lithium batteries, such as those used in power tools, store a lot of energy in a small space. If damaged, they can combust, posing a fire risk.

Lithium batteries that are no longer in use, can be deposited at the hazardous waste area at the Green Island Landfill. Currently we are investigating recycling options for all types of batteries.

03 477 4000

www.dunedin.govt.nz